LÄÄNEMERI MEETS OSTSEE
CONSTRUCTIONS AND MEANINGS OF THE BALTIC SEA REGION
29 November 2014, IRTG Workshop, University of Tartu, Estonia

10.00 Opening

Trade

10.15 Enn Küng (Tartu)
Die Entwicklung der Handelsflotte von Narva in der zweiten Hälfte des 17. Jahrhunderts

10.45 Jari Ojala (Jyväskylä)
Integrating the North European Trade during the Early Nineteenth Century: New Evidence from the Danish Sound

Cultural Constructions

11.15 Hanna Snellman (Helsinki)
Everyday Language Policies: Embodiment of Language-related Experiences of Immigrants

11.45 Anti Selart (Tartu)
New Faith and new Name? Crusade, Conversion and Baptismal Names in Medieval Livonia

12.15 Lunch

13.30 Riho Altnurme (Tartu)
Lutheranism around the Baltic Sea

14.00 Krista Kodres (Tallinn)
Competing Art Histories in Estonia in the 1930’s: Does the Local Heritage belong to the Baltic-Nordic or the German artedominium?

14.30 Heiko Pääbo (Tartu)
Constructing Historical Space: Estonia’s Transition from the Russian Civilization to the Baltic Sea Region

Mobilities

15.00 Martyn Housden (Bradford)
For the Sake of Europe or the Reich? Ewald Ammende and Europe’s National Minorities during the Inter-War Period

15.30 Mati Laur (Tartu)
Die studentischen Bautrupps Sowjetestlands: Zwischen Anpassung und Widerstand

19.00 Dinner

Conference Organisation: Alexander Drost, Anti Selart